

Chatter That Matters

"Vision Works Publishing produces some of the most beautiful and powerful children's books around. They are so deep on so many levels, yet so simple as well. They touch on subjects we don't often talk about in society. They are a blessing and make me want to give them to all the children I know!"

Depa Fernandes - WBAI 99.5fm

"Vision Works Books present positive images and uplifting stories that help children to develop a strong self-image and effective interpersonal skills. With messages that are accessible to children and that help teach the core values of strong communities, these books are a pleasure not only to children, but also to families and care givers."

Dr. Edison O. Jackson - President, Medgar Evers College

"David and Mutiya Vision have collaborated on a series of children's books that reflect their own warmth, closeness and understanding of life, and children in particular. There is an uplifting feeling to the philosophy behind their books. I would recommend them to any family, but especially to a family with young children."

George D. Goldman, Ph.D. Licensed Psychologist - Retired Supervisor of Psycho Therapy, Director of the Post Doctoral Psychotherapy- Center of Adelphi University

"Mutiya Vision was a wonderful success! The teachers, children and even the principal loved her presentation. Mutiya Vision did an author presentation at our school, PS/IS 266Q and the school is still talking about the event!! She was warm, informative and inspiring and the students were totally engaged- not an easy task with 300 3rd - 6th graders. We have used her book, What Makes Me Beautiful, as part of our character education curriculum and purchased another book on choices (My Choices Make Me Who I Am) for next year's Community Read and this was before we met her. Now the books and their messages are even more special because of the experience of meeting her! Aim high and dream big!"

Susan Weingart, P.S./I.S. 266, Reading Teacher

"Mutiya Vision's workshop with the young people of Women In Need was absolutely wonderful. Our children were attentive and engaged. They asked questions, eagerly participated in the Q & A session and willingly shared their thoughts. Ms. Vision is an excellent teacher. She is extremely patient and made our children feel comfortable the moment she met them. I absolutely enjoyed the book signing segment and how she tailored her comments (written in the book each child received) to each child. This was a super event and one that none of us will forget."

Christopher Armstrong, Recreation Coordinator – Women In Need

"Thank you Mutiya for an inspirational and educational author presentation at our school. The students, as well as the teachers, were moved and motivated by your words and life story."

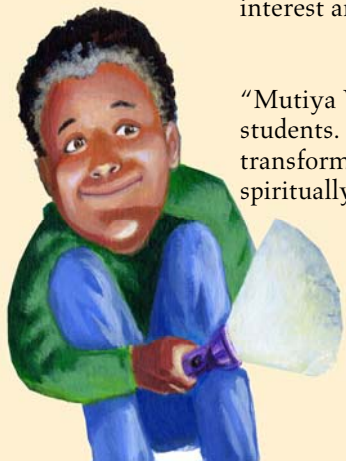

Eileen Raszka – Librarian, J.A. Coles Elementary School

"The workshop "Master of Your Universe" was very uplifting and inspirational because it helped prepare students to think about their future. When students are armed with positive strategies at an early age they are better able to navigate through life. I liked the way Mrs. Vision shared examples of how her real life experiences helped her to become a stronger person. It was wonderful to see the interest and pleasure on the faces of the students during her presentation. Keep up the good work!"

Linda Pearson- KAPPA V Librarian

"Mutiya Vision's workshop "Master of Your Universe" was so meaningful and relevant to me and my students. I loved the redefinition of "disability" to "differently-abled". This definition alone transformed the manner in which we view ourselves and others. The message was uplifting and spiritually based. I will sing through the rest of the day."
